DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

REPORT OF THE SOFT SKILLS CERTIFICATE COURSE
1 APRIL 2023-2 MAY 2023

The Department of English of L.A.D. and Smt. R. P. College for Women organized a 30-hour Soft Skills Certificate Course from 1 April 2023 to 2 May 2023. This course was conducted under the aegis of SkEd. The Soft Skills Certificate Course is designed to equip the students with set of skills, where each module focuses on the concepts of Communication, Awareness of Self and the World, Critical Thinking and Leadership Strategies, which are required to succeed and excel in today's world.

The Certificate Course was inaugurated by the Principal Dr. Pooja Pathak, where she encouraged the participants and organizers with her words of motivation. In her inaugural address, she spoke of the importance of effective communication and leadership skills and how they would be important tools for the aspiring young minds of the participants. Dr Ruta Dharmadhikari was the Course Coordinator and Dr Meenakshi Kulkarni was the Convener.

This course falls outside the prescribed syllabus of RTMNU, of their undergraduate studies and is administered as an additional skill development course. These skills are imparted to the students through their interaction with skilled resource persons from all walks of life. The course has been conceptualized over a 30hour schedule, each session is of 90 minutes, comprises 5 modules and a total of 22 sessions, with one being a feedback session.

The Course had more than 50 students registered through the Google Form as well as offline in the Department of English. An attendance registered was regularly maintained for the participants. While the sessions were moderated by Dr Ruta Dharmadhikari and Dr Meenakshi Kulkarni, Ms. Neha Thosar created online feedback forms for each session, which were filled up by the students daily.

The first module dealt with the concept of 'Communication'. The inaugural session was conducted by Dr.Ruta Dharmadhikari who spoke on the topic 'Basics of Communication and the Importance of Precise 'Communication'. She further elaborated on the importance of clarity in communication. Through her talk, she briefly touched upon concurring modules and gave the students a slice of what was to come in consecutive sessions.

The second session was delivered by Anil Jain on the topic "Body Language, Silence and Empathetic Communication". He elaborated on the importance of non-verbal communication and the importance of silence in communication

The next session was conducted by Dr.Prantik Banerjee on "Competitive English". During his session he shared various valuable tips with the participants on how to prepare for competitive exams. The participants interacted freely with the resource person at the end of the session.

REPORT OF THE SOFT SKILLS CERTIFICATE COURSE
1 APRIL 2023-2 MAY 2023

The last session saw Ms. Simran Thakwani elaborate on an important contemporary topic titled "Content Writing for Digital Media". Ms. Thakwani stressed on the importance of creating a personal brand value and contextual repurposing for maximum impact. This session would surely help our young participants make their mark in the digital world.

The second module of the course was titled 'The Self and the World'. The first session of the second module was conducted by Course Convener Dr.Meenakshi Kulkarni. She spoke on "Managing Your Emotions", a topic that resonated deeply with the participants as today's rapidly changing world takes a toll on the youngsters' emotion management skills.

In the second session Dr. Kanak Gillurkar Sharma spoke on "Anxiety Management: Coping with Pressure". Her topic was a logical follow up of the previous session and furthered the concepts of managing pressures and anxiety.

Following on the trope of managing emotions and pressure, Ms Sucheta Doo enlightened the participants on the topic "Good Stress, Bad Stress". Her session was interactive and thoroughly enjoyed by the participants.

The concluding session of this module was a master class by Dr Suresh Chari on "Interpersonal Skills and Peer Group Dynamics". He stressed on the importance of positive thinking, adaptability and discipline. This session was an apt conclusion to the second module as it gave the students practical understanding of attributes required in the industry set-up and the importance of positive peer group dynamics.

'Critical Thinking' was the focus of the third module. The first session was conducted by Dr.Arvinde Kaur on the topic "Critical Thinking and Problem Solving" where she spoke on the importance of breaking stereotypical thinking patterns and how it forms an essential part of the problem-solving technique. Her delivery was effortless and immersive.

Dr.Rashmi Bansal conducted a much-needed session on "Time Management and Goal Setting", which was much appreciated by the young participants.

The third session of this module saw Dr.Medha Dixit discussing about "Assertive Skills and Conflict Management". Dr. Dixit shed light on the importance of approaching a conflict in a positive and assertive manner to reduce hassles and issues. She also spoke about importance of and techniques in practicing difficult discussions beforehand.

The next session of this module was by the esteemed Mrs. Rujuta Rammohan in an online session on 'Organisational Behaviour and Team Building'. This session was most beneficial for the participants, who enthusiastically participated in the team building activities set by the resource person.

The last session of Module III was conducted by Dr.Prantik Banerjee on "Group Discussion and Interview Techniques". This was a highly informative session where Dr. Banerjee shared with our participants many dos and don'ts of preparing and appearing for interviews. It was a highly interactive session where participants participated enthusiastically. A comprehensive Q and A session was also held towards the end of this session. This was a fitting finale to Module III.

The focus of Module IV was "Leadership and You". This was an important module for the budding professionals. The first session was conducted by Dr.Ruta Dharmadhikari on "Essential Leadership Skills- Adaptability for Work Life Balance". Her session was much appreciated as it would equip the participants in the professional world. The resource person highlighted the importance of flexibility and adaptability in the workplace setting. This session was particularly enjoyed by the students' as it was an interactive session where input and feedback of the participants was discussed in great detail.

Maitreyee Kale was the resource person for the second session titled "Community Outreach and Communication". Ms. Kale explained the importance of listening skills in effective communication.

Aditi Jain conducted a stimulating session on "How to Tackle Gender Discrimination". She enumerated various steps a person may take in ensuring gender equality. She engaged the participants with various activities and interacted effectively with the participants.

The final session of this module saw the renowned Dr.Atya Kaple interacting with the participants on "Women in Leadership". It was a highly informative session for budding young professionals stepping out into the real world. Dr.Kaple spoke of her own experiences and how women empowerment played a role in making women great leaders.

The fifth and final module dealt with "Communication Strategies". The first session was conducted by Mr. Tanveer Mirza who spoke on "Communicating with my Environment". His session dealt with climate change and the importance of 'action'. He actively encouraged the participants to be more environment conscious in their daily lives.

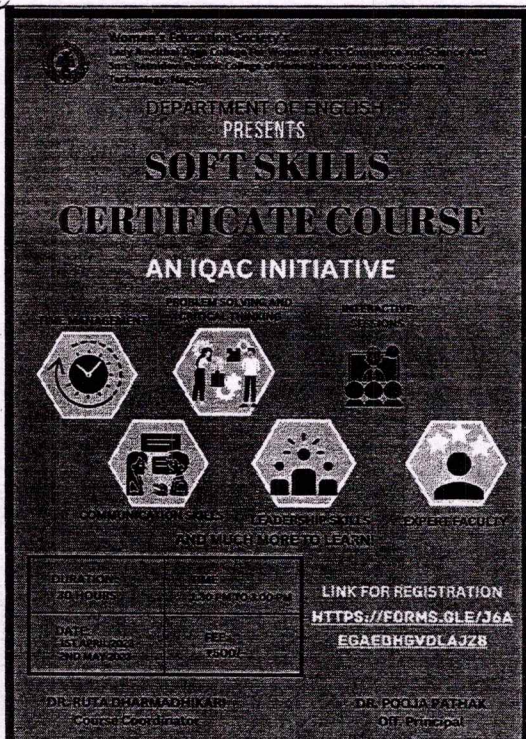

The second session saw Ms. Sucheta Dhoot engaging the participants on the topic "Communication Strategies for Self-Esteem". Her session dealt with concepts of self-esteem, maintaining self-esteem and confidence building activities.

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN CALLIGRAPHY

The Department of Interior Design organized a fifteen day certificate course in Calligraphy from 5/09/2022 to 26/09/2022 for first year students of Bachelor of Interior Design. The duration of the workshop was two hours per day for fifteen days as per the time table. A total number of sixteen students registered for the workshop.

The art of lettering is an important skill desired in the field of interior design. All drawings done by the students of interior design need lettering on them. Text is an integral part of all drawings. Lettering skill is hence an essential skill required by all designers.

The outcome of the workshop was skill development in various types of letter types written manually. The syllabus of the workshop included fifteen different types of fonts like Gothic, City Blue Print, and Country Blue Print to name a few. A stationery kit containing Calligraphy pens, workbook and notebook etc was provided to all participants. The workbook containing all the 15 fonts was part of the kit. A test was taken for assessing the students and feedback was collected. A fee of Rs.1200 was charged per student. The resource generated from this workshop was Rs. Fourteen thousand five hundred and thirty two only.

(One month certificate course on In vitro plant propagation held from 10th February 2023 to 10th March 2023)

A one-month certificate course on in vitro* plant culture was conducted from 10th February 2023 to 10th March 2023. The course fee was kept 2500Rs/student.

The concept behind mootng this particular certificate course- India is an agricultural country and our main economy is dependent upon agriculture and horticulture. To understand the recent advances in the field, it's a must to be able to grow the plants in laboratory conditions and study various aspects for enhancing the quality and quantity. Keeping this in mind we designed the course in such a way that students learn the know-how of the procedure through hands on experience

The resource persons for the course were

Course coordinator- Dr. Alka Dhondge

Course incharge- Dr. Ashwini Balki

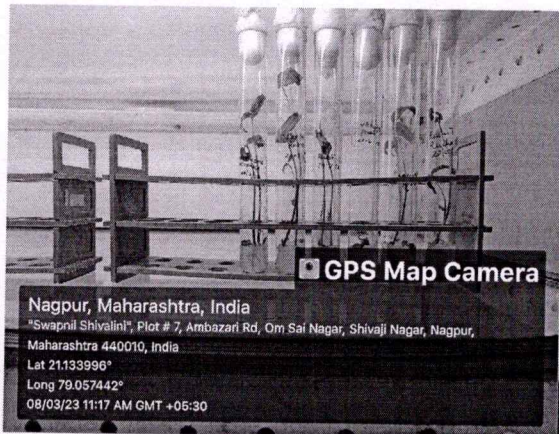

Course supervisor – Ms. Mrunali Malkhede

- In the course students were given an introduction to the instruments and other equipments used in in vitro plant culture/ plant tissue culture.
- They were introduced the plant tissue culture laboratory and the dos and don'ts in the laboratory.
- They were then taught to prepare glassware and stock standards for initiating plant tissue culture
- Then hands on training was given for in vitro seed germination, callus induction, in vitro culture of plants
- Students were asked to make a scrap book on the day today work done by them
- The observations were photographed and pasted on their scrap book

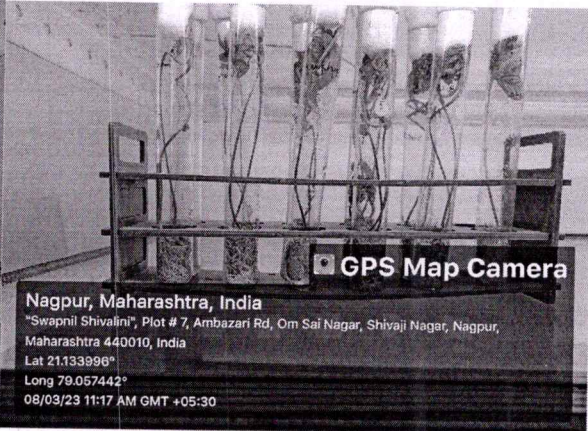

➤ On successful completion of the course, students were awarded certificates
