Despite all odds and ends of the year 2020, the positive minds world-over, have encouraged virtual sharing of platforms and ideas to unlearn, learn and relearn the modalities to meet the challenges of life and experience happiness and fulfillment.

We at L.A.D.& Smt. R.P. College too encouraged the staff and the students to Work from Home and the Online Education became the only way forward with Pre-cautionary Safety Measures adding up as a way towards the New Normal. The pandemic has certainly modified our workplace as never before along with changes in the lifestyle of all its stakeholders.

CAS promotion of teachers to Professors scale which was a long pending aspiration was accomplished by a few recently. Majority of the Staff participated in Webinars; they are learning to choose the right pedagogy, flipped classroom technique, content delivery management, and online teaching-learning-evaluation-assessment. College organized many Webinars for the Staff, promoted many to attend training and also encouraged them to participate in several Webinars organized by different agencies, both National and International. Teachers are becoming Tech-savvy enabling a gradual stepping into a dynamic learning environment and are getting well acquainted with the portal of New Education Policy as well.

This premier reputed Institution of Women's Education Society popularly known as L.A.D. in Central India has completed 89 years with a mission to foster higher education thereby enlightening and empowering women. Over these splendid years its vision to develop the institute into a reputed brand name for excellence in academics and empower women with higher learning and research capabilities through dynamic and value based education for global competency and strength of character is indeed commendable. From April 21, 2022, we would celebrate its progressive existence and entry into the magnificent Ninety years and would commemorate with dedication the commitments of illustrious luminaries who have left their mark in the annals of the College.

This pandemic has not deterred us from celebrating our regular activities of PAT-ON-THE BACK, STAFF FAREWELL and DAAN UTSAV. The EduDAAN imparted during the Joy of Giving Week was on Digital Stree Shakti to train young girls about cyber safety- in association with a non-profit organization in the State- Responsible Netism. Few short term certificate courses were successfully organized- the prominent short course was on "Learn to Design Your Own Solar Home System" in collaboration with Energy Swaraj Foundation. International Women's Day celebrations were jointly organized online by Women's Study Centre and Alumnae Association by felicitating three Star Alumnae of our College – Arundhati Pantawane, ShrinidhiGhatate and Nidhi Agrawal. It was to motivate them and had a mindful intent to inspire many more replicas of our shining stars of L.A.D. in their own splendid grace. Mindfulness Literacy Year Programmes included Webinars and Competitions. Emotional Wellness, Embodying Stillness: Finding Peace of Mind amidst Covid-19 were deliberately organized – resource person Mrs. Rajita Kulkarni –President Sri Sri University, Bhubhaneshwar gave a detailed comprehensive concept of meditation. The routine feature of printing table top- calendar on the posters made by our students was also accomplished. Mandala Art Competition for the Non-teaching Staff and a National Level PowerPoint Competition in collaboration with the NSS Cell of RashtrasantTukdojiMaharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur were other activities organized.

FITNESS Literacy Year is the next distinctive feature announced for the forthcoming academic Session 2021-2022. It concerns about the present and future wellbeing not only for self but all of us – focusing from Me to We – as an essence of appropriateness. We hope it will be in the fitness of things, to Feel, Introspect, Think and Navigate, and then Equip to Seek and Shine, mnemonically capturing the essence in the word "FITNESS".

Editorial

Tarang seeks this opportunity to first salute the Corona Warriors who made living possible with real life stories to narrate.

The pandemonium caused owing to the outbreak of the pandemic abruptly affected the entire human set up from March 17, 2020. Later, the nationwide lockdown caused a sense of insecurity where existence and survival became the primary aim, eschewing all human desires.

As the aftermath of the invisible virus continued to create havoc within the minds, confusion lingered regarding the status of education consequently. School and College students were exempted from appearing in examinations; but, the final year students along with few professional course students faced the brunt of the situation when their examinations were repeatedly postponed, only adding to their agony, anxiety and the prevailing psychological dilemma.

The teaching fraternity even in this adverse situation remained determined to extend their services to students. Contemplating the environment that was equally new to them, the teachers became active participants acquainting themselves with the nuances of teaching- learning as the new normal! Technology came to the rescue of education and the current issue of Tarang highlights the goals achieved academically.

Nevertheless, as one reads about the newsletter, a lot of gaps would be predominantly felt. The void is impeccable as it indicates the conspicuous repercussions of the Covid-19 effect. Several regular annual events, all students centric in the form of Extension Activities and various Competitions could not be held as large gatherings were proscribed and the teething problems coping with technology and positioning these events online seemed unusual. But, scrutinising over the entire array of things, at this juncture, the teachers seem to have overcome the novelty of sudden technology imposed upon them. They have started to innovate and improvise with the "new normal" and soon these events will be recorded in our next issue of Tarang.

As we introspect ourselves throughout the journey from June 2020, where suddenly virtual learning began impacting the education system, in June 2021, the education scenario seems to have befitted itself adhering to the social distancing norms.

Still.... we are aware that not all students were able to benefit out of this situation. The challenges are ahead to accomplish the task to let education be sought by each student and the teaching fraternity along with their students will strive to fulfil the undertaking.

At this point, we express a sense of gratitude towards the Office Staff of the College. They remained undeterred to the prevailing situation by exhibiting their skill to focus on the work uninterrupted. Each non-teaching staff member dedicatedly performed their duty for the smooth conduct of the varied procedures required. They stood strong like a bridge transferring all essential responsibilities for students and teachers. Kudos to them all!!

As we continue to cope with the ubiquitous unpropitious conditions and situation, we have to avow that there are many lessons to learn in the process certainly. The newsletter will continue to showcase the learnings, all based on humility as we have miles to go before we sleep!
